CAMP DIRECTOR

Webb Hatch is the Director of the Webb Hatch Basketball Camp. He is currently the Men's Head Basketball Coach at Frostburg State University in Frostburg, MD, a position to which he was hired in August of 1999. In the 2000-2001 season Hatch led FSU to the Allegheny Mountain Collegiate Conference Championship, a 20-10 overall record, and the second most wins in a season in school history. He has over 30 years coaching experience on the high school and college levels. Hatch was an assistant coach at the Virginia Military Institute, a Division I member of the Southern Conference, in 1998-99. From 1987 to 1997 he was the Men's Head Basketball Coach at Marymount University, where he led the Saints to a regular season conference championship in 1990-91, a conference tournament championship in 1991-92, and he was named conference coach of the year in 1990-91. Prior to going to Marymount he was an assistant coach at Virginia Wesleyan College where he helped lead the Marlins to three NCAA Division III Tournament appearances in his nine years at VWC. He also coached on the high school level for five years with his most successful campaign being 1976-77 when he led Nansemond-Suffolk Academy to a 23-3 record and a VAAC championship. His basic coaching philosophy has always been - play hard, play smart, and have fun. He applies this same philosophy to his camps, where he emphasizes instruction in the basic fundamentals and believes the campers should have a fun and positive experience.
